

HINO TRUCKS BREAKS GROUND ON FUTURE HOME OF U.S. HEADQUARTERS

August 4th, 2017.

Hino Trucks & Hino Motors Manufacturing marked the relocating, and combining of, their corporate offices with a groundbreaking ceremony for new corporate headquarters in Novi, Michigan.

Slated to complete construction in late 2018, the new location will combine employees from current headquarters, located both in Novi and Farmington Hills, Michigan, in a new state-of-the-art facility.

During the groundbreaking ceremony, Yoshinori Noguchi, CEO & President of Hino Trucks said, "Today's groundbreaking not only signifies Hino's growth in the U.S. but also a new beginning for our operations in the U.S. With sales, distribution, engineering and manufacturing operations all under one roof at our new U.S. headquarters, our ability to manage the phenomenal growth of the Hino Brand in America will be greatly enhanced. In that spirit, we are excited to break ground on our new office and collectively work together as one Hino U.S. team. We are grateful to the state of Michigan, Oakland County and the City of Novi for their partnership as Hino U.S.A. continues to expand its footprint in the United States."
